

Chapter-11

We've treaded so close to the final chapter but before that the month of April arrives and I never knew that after meeting you in that month once I won't be getting to see you again for a long long time, huh, that's depressing but yeah this month had my practicals started and I was still somedays sleeping on the sofa. I remember you being a bit upset at me for thinking that I've forgotten it, I didn't for real real. Apart from that I don't think this month had any other conflict, not like I remember those in the first place. So, mmm this month had Samar's birthday and I was so rooting for another meet, that apparently couldn't happen, kinda depressing but it is what it is. This month too was filled with a lot ILYs, IMYs, emotions, amazing orgasms, a bit of conflicts, examination pressure but with you around all the pressure felt at ease for me. During this month I started to you know kinda plan on how I can have you over at my place after your examinations, a lot of thought went into, you know in December I was thinking of having you over for my birthday but all blah blah happened I neither could execute nor even share the plan, like I wasn't able to, because a lot of stuff was already going on. Huh! I so wanna have you over. Hnmm, for real really really bad, I want to spend some quality time with you physically, can say that I at least am in a dire need of it, like just for fuckin' real everything, no lie. So yes this month was filled with the examinations high, where you was all cooking up for yours, I was for my practicals and all all, never felt that less attended, sorry if I made you feel like that, not only this month but anytime ever. So this month too ends. It too just flew past like every other month that I have spent with you. Huh, iloveeeyouuumybabyyy!!!
